At Bluegreen Club 36™, it's all about latitude and attitude. This desert oasis is located at latitude 36 degrees north (hence its name), a few blocks off the magnificent Vegas Strip near the MGM Grand®, Mandalay Bay, New York New York, Luxor and Excalibur.

The resort's name and planned design were also inspired by the age of Parisian Art Deco, which some say reached its height of popularity in 1936. From the outside in, Club 36's fun and funky colors and style reflect the functional, lavish and ultra modern design of the Art Deco era.

Club 36 is the perfect retreat from the non-stop action of the Strip. Guests can relax by the covered pool, sunbathe on the outdoor deck, refresh with a drink from the poolside bar and dine at four casual on-site restaurants.

Plus, Bluegreen guests can enjoy the peace and privacy of a 1- or 2-bedroom villa with many of the conveniences of home and elegant Parisian Art Deco décor.

If you've come to Las Vegas to unwind—and who hasn't—treat yourself to one of a select menu of services provided by Djanel Spa. A massage by the pool might be just what you need, or choose from a limited number of other pampering treats now available at Club 36. Ask at the front desk for details.

Guests who need to work off some of those calories consumed at one of the world-class buffets in town can work out in the fitness room before heading out for the day. And here in the haven of high-rollers, Bluegreen offers a plush Presidential Suite, with more space, more over-the-top elegance, theater and a game room!

With all there is to see and do in and around Vegas, one of our vacation planners can set up a game plan for guests based on their interests. Plus, Club 36 is conveniently surrounded by a retail center expected to be filled with popular restaurants, video gambling, a liquor store and more. Everything guests need for a perfect Vegas vacation is within their reach at Club 36!
